

Title:	Nihongo de Hanaso (Let Us Speak Japanese)
Schedule:	February 3, 2022
Speaker
Richard R. Feliciano	- A graduate of Broadcasting and a proud Asian, Richard has been in the teaching profession since 1996. His vast experience in teaching Nihongo has brought him to places and meet people who have all made him even more qualified to teach the language and its intricacies. - At present, finishing his Master in Communication at the Asian Institute of Journalism and Communication, he has taught to several international institutions, notably the Asian Development Bank (ADB) since 2009 and at the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA). - A Japan Foundation scholar in 2001, Richard has attended various trainings and classes in Japan, most recent was as a scholar at Osaka University School of International Public Policy (OSIPP) for one semester, earning units in Japanese mass media and gender studies. - A lover of sports particularly track and field and tennis, he remains active by engaging in sports.
Topics Discussed:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What makes Nihongo easy to learn; 2. What will make anyone become good Nihongo speaker; and 3. Let us learn Japanese words thru numbers.
Total Registration :	Google = 398 Zoom = 146
Total Viewers:	FB Live = 310

Nihongo de Hanaso
Let Us Speak Japanese

Free Webinar

February 3, 2022

2:00 - 3:00 P.M.

Major Topics

- What makes Nihongo easy to learn
- What will make anyone good in Nihongo
- Japanese words through numbers

Join Us via Zoom or Facebook Live

Register Here

For more information, visit us at <https://ccesc.mapua.edu.ph>
or email us at ccesc@mapua.edu.ph