Schedule:	August 4, 2023 at 2pm
Speaker
Maria Rowena Bernardino	Rowie Bernardino has been teaching French as a foreign language (Professeure de français langue étrangère) for more than two decades. Over the years, she has taught professionals, university students, young adults, teens, tweens and children as young as two years old. She has also given language trainings to prospective immigrants to French-speaking countries (Francophones) and does translation work on the side. She also worked for a multinational company, processing claims by French-speaking clients from Europe, North America and Africa. A graduate of Bachelor of Science in Foreign Service, magna cum laude, from the Lyceum of the Philippines, she has taken a keen interest in languages and studied Spanish, German and French. Needless to say, it was French which she chose to pursue. After graduation from college, she obtained a Diploma in French Language, and subsequently, a Diploma in Professionalization in French as a Foreign Language (Professionnalisation en Français Langue Étrangère) from CNED, France. Rowie has been a recipient of several training grants as part of continuing education program for French Professors in institutions renowned for training French Professors all over the world, among which are the CLA-UFC in Besançon, France, the Université d'été-BELC in Nantes, France; and the Universités d'été Francophonie in Nice, France. Rowie is currently the Treasurer of the Association of French Professors of the Philippines (Association des Professeurs de Français aux Philippines).
